Cheater Of The Year

Evan Taubenfeld

You told your friends,
Who told my friends,
That you got drunk and spent the night
With some guy you didn't know
At all
Now you're so resistant,
Your story's inconsistent,
You swear you only kissed him
But I know it's a lie
You try to PG rate it,
But that's not how it played in my head
And you front like you've been crying
But I know that you're lying again
And this is the part when you disappear,
Is a clich
