

Brand New Day

Swollen Members

I'm on fire, when I rap, I leave the area smoky Better call Smokey the bear, cuz I'm the rarest showpiece
My roots are planted, standing strong, and I'm a cherry oak tree
But keep quiet as kept, cuz I'm very low-key!
Never rode a BMX, wearing a pair of Oakleys
While listening to DMX, not even remotely
Close, listen closely, I'm the most sickest rapper
Leaving no Sistine chapel, I am blown trough some chapters
But I won't regret after I am done with my rapture
I am done with the laughter, I'm a sun: can't be captured
And I'm smashed to be in Messico, half of us want the real shit
But we are force fed all or this horseshit its unfortunate!
It is unfair, that's why I'm never done here
I love how I'm rebuilding, and the future? It is unclear
But I look at the glass healthful, retired asshole
Life fast like: where did my past go?
I'm a maniac, a chatterbox, it's catastrophic
Poppin' gravel, spitting scattered rocks and fuckin' battle topics
I'm poppin' off and shooting bottle rockets
I'm a throttle rocker, never sitting idle, oh my god I'm proper!

Down the way where I was on my chapter
Beautiful shiver and Iâ€™TMll be giving a reaction
This night itâ€™TMs mine
Lost myself but then I found my way
Beautiful struggle with a brand new day
This night itâ€™TMs mine

Through the happiness
Unlock your brain and let you mind set free

When the sun raise right, rising shine early wakers
Got a part time apartment in the land of the Lakers
People ask me if I'm landed from the lands of Jamaica
I say no, although I grow up on an island motivated
Overrated by some, underrated by most
We orchestrated what no one has ever done for my coast
I see the prime shining right in the eyes of his false
My microphone is like a lighting ball striking your home

Before I put the fire out, put the blighters out the misery
That's another Spider-Man and Silver Surfer mystery!
Deliver in my system of believers and must Believe in family, in 'friends, its only few you can trust
The three of us we stuck together through the thick and the thin
But now weâ€™ve got some thicker skin but still predicted to win
You either sink or you swim, you either float or you drown
So donâ€™t slow down, flow down and own your crown because I

Down the way where I was on my chapter
Beautiful shiver and Iâ€™ll be giving a reaction
This night itâ€™s mine
Lost myself but then I found my way
Beautiful struggle with a brand new day
this night itâ€™s mine

Found my way and then I lost myself
Found my way and then I lost myself
Lost my self but then I found my way
Lost my self but then I found my way
Lost my self but then I found my way
Found my way and then I lost myself
Found my way and then I lost myself
Lost myself, I gotta find my way
Lost myself, I gotta find my way

Beautiful shiver and Iâ€™ll be giving a reaction
This night itâ€™s mine
Lost myself but then I found my way
Beautiful struggle with a brand new day
But this night itâ€™s mine
