

Fall of the Curtain

Brocas Helm

The fall of the curtain
Brings a tear to my eye
The fall of the curtain
A reason to cry
Release your prisoners
Release them all
Tear down your curtain
Tear down your wall
The wall of death surrounds you
The answer can be found
You will find your new beginnings
From dreams you left behind
A new day is dawning
Leave yesterday behind
Tear down the curtain
Unleash your mind
You have the knowledge
Realize you hold the key
You have the power
To set your people free
