All Too Human (Acoustic)

The Rakes

The distance we have come has got me pinin'
For a touch up once familiar and excitin'
And though up yonder charts we might be climbing
To do it without you is very frightenin'Now you've got a job you hoped and work for We're both pretty much where we wanna be
We hardly get any time together
'cos now we're both fallen to diseaseHuman all too human
I'm at the mercy of you
You got me right were you want me
There's nothing else I can do
Human all too human
I'm all tense and strained
Just can't bring myself to tell you
I cant keep livin' like thisComin' back to the flat now seems so lonely
Your not there so its just how I left it
The chair that you used to sit in is now empty,
Its arms can't hold me like they're meant toHuman all to human,
I'm at the mercy of you
You've got me right were you want me
There's nothing else I can do
Human all too human,
I'm all tense and strained
Just can't bring myself to tell you
I can't keep livin' like this(human all to human)I need you I need you, I seriously do
I'm not even drunk yet, I only had a few
I need you I need you I seriously do,
I'm not even drunk yet I only had a fewYou got me right were you want me
There nothing else I can do
Human all too human
I'm all tense and strained
Just cant bring myself to tell you
I can't keep living like this
