Help Me

Johnny Cash

Oh, Lord, help me walk, another mile, just one more mile I'm tired of walkin' all alone And Lord, help me smile, another smile, just one more smile Don't think I can do things on my ownI never thought I needed help before I thought that I could get by, by myself But now I know, I just can't take it any more And with a humble heart on bended knee I'm beggin' You, please for helpOh, come down from Your golden throne to me, to lowly me I need to feel the touch of Your tender hand Release these chains of darkness, let me see, Lord, let me see Just where I fit into Your master planI never thought I needed help before I thought that I could get by, by myself Now I know, I just can't take it any more And with a humble heart on bended knee I'm beggin' You, please for help With a humble heart on bended knee I'm beggin' You, please for help
