Hair

Verse 1

Your hair is red so its no wonder that you're fiery before you go to bed are you cursing me in your diary I didn't mean to offend you just hoping that you'd spend time with me but now you say im bad and you find it hard to admire me for saying i'll kill your mom if she continue denying me if not for your brother and you i'd slice her throat honestly when will the day finally come when you'll call and say hi to me missing you something miserable constantly thinking violently i'll take her up to the roof and yeah she can take a giant leap for father kind time to seize what's mine my prodigy
my dynasty bella please accept my apology Dahlia and Rita miss you you possess my better qualities im guilty of allot but never did i stop loving you your mother got the run of you to her your P.O.W a prisoner of war now i see red like the blood we share tell your mother beware her red will flow like your lovely hair

Hook

I can sit and count the rainbows when the wind blows thru your hair (2x)

Bridge 1

Your Hair (3x)

Verse 2

Honestly Bella i'm missing you to death literally the depth of my misery twisting me giving me the strength within to consider thee bitter sweet revenge of listening to killing me softly while the pillow steals her breath Sick Jacken's like "Block yo stop tripping shit happens!" Now im understanding why the word "Kid"s in Kidnapping shit is real what would push a human being to steal and claim its own child from the mother now you feeling my pain she is little me our connections is revealed in her name Isabella Sophia Diaz tatted right here on my vein Written in stone heart that grows colder the unforgiven she should die for ever trying to imply i don't love my children and if christ could bring them closer in this kingdom ill rejoice they wear my face for christ sakes they're singing with my voice! so.ima come and getcha baby make up for the time weve lost because nothing smells sweeter than that of a dying corpse

Hook

Bridge 2

Nothings prettier than the sunlight shining thru your hair And nothing is more twisted than my mind when im missing your hair there's nothing that i wouldnt do for you i love your beautiful hair
