

The Actor

Scullion

The Actor

Do you see through
This part I'm playing
Will you tell me
When I look like me again
My face, feels like me
But I feel like an actor
Reflections in a shop window
Tell me, clearly exactly where I am

They've taken all the seats away
So I'm standing alone
Just like the last one
On the planet
Sees his reflection in a window
So many empty walk the streets
Oh, what a king I've become

Reflections in a shop window
Tell me clearly exactly where I am
Reflections in a shop window
Tell me clearly exactly who I am

Up and down the street
Windows lights and faces
Almost touching each other
Like dust

New directions high expectations
Just dust in constellations
My face feels like me
But I feel like an actor

Feel like an actor

Reflections in a shop window
Tell me clearly exactly where I am
Reflections in a shop window

Tell me clearly exactly who I am

Ad lib out
