Entrenched

Bolt Thrower

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Devastated, through broken promises and lies
The scars lie deep now, burning from inside
Cut through broken promises and lies
Intense resentment now will thriveInstinctively - as you feel the anger rise
As the pressure builds hatred fills the mindOverpowering - gripped within the jaws of defeat
Under attack - no organized retreat
Trapped within the jaws of defeat
Won but lost - the misery completeWhen least expected - with the element of surprise
Silent and swiftly - another taken lifeViolated - breached are all defensive lines
The enemy has victory in sightWithin the moment
When all seems lost
In retaliation
Eradicate the pastIn defeat triumphant
In the face of massed adversity
In a world of compromise
...Some don't.
