Wake Me Up

The Microphones

(wake me up)
While I slept you came in through the window.
(morning sun)
I heard you whisper my name.
Your voice was the singing of birds.
From where I was you sounded far away
But slowly I floated towards the sound I was hearing.
The sound of you whispering to me.
I let go and opened my eyes.
Once I let go I forget where I was.
I squinted my eyes in the sun.
I caughht a few glimpses and everything was bright.
It was you I was seeing in sunlight.
