Disappointed

Ivy

Baby for the first time
I'm falling, falling for the last timeHalf dead on the inside
Feels like nothing is left at all
Half smile on the outside, then it's goneI could never be what you want me to be
I'm just gonna leave you disappointed
I could never be what you want me to be
I'm just gonna leave you disappointedCould it be that this time
We're just longing, longing for the first time?It's been such a long ride
Now we're slipping back again
No matter how we try to pretendI could never be what you want me to be
I'm just gonna leave you disappointed
I could never be what you want me to be
I'm just gonna leave you disappointedI could never see what you wanted from me
All you're gonna be is disappointed
I could never be what you want me to be
I'm just gonna leave you disappointedHalf dead on the inside
Feels like nothing is left at all
Half smile on the outside, then it's goneI could never be what you want me to be
I'm just gonna leave you disappointed
I could never be what you want me to be
I'm just gonna leave you disappointedI could never see what you wanted from me
All you're gonna be is disappointed
I could never be what you want me to be
I'm just gonna leave you disappointedI could never be what you want me to be
I'm just gonna leave you disappointed
I could never be what you want me to be
I'm just gonna leave you disappointedI could never see what you wanted from me
All you're gonna be is disappointed
I could never be what you want me to be
I'm just gonna leave you disappointed
