Somebody For You

Danielle Peck

You always give yourself so freely
And never ask for anything in return
Yeah, you make loving you so easy
And make it so hard to know when you hurt
For everyone around you
There's not a thing you wouldn't do
I wanna be that somebody for you
When the rain starts falling on your parade
And when you have to say a prayer just to get through another day
When there's no one beside you to wipe the tears from your face
I'll pull you through, I wanna be that somebody for you
Your faith and innocence renew me, yeah
You give me strength and peace of mind
No, I can't hide, you see right through me
You won't let me leave my dreams behind
You've always been my summer shining
And my sky of blue
I wanna be that somebody for you
When the rain starts falling on your parade
And when you have to say a prayer just to get through another day
When there's no one beside you to wipe the tears from your face
I'll pull you through, I wanna be that somebody for you
Well, everyone around you
There's not a thing you wouldn't do
You'll always be the summer shining, and the sky a blue
When there's no one beside you to wipe the tears from your face
I'll pull you through
I wanna be, I wanna be that somebody for you
