Learning to Be the Light

NewWorldSon

When the stars came crashing down In tiny pieces to the ground I was all alone down here Trapped beneath the atmosphere Then I, thought somebody called my name I spun around and caught a flame I gave into a God I didnâ€TMt know And now everything is falling into place A brand new life is calling and I owe it all to grace

Itâ€TMs so much brighter living in your world Savior, what you did for me You gave me something I want everyone to see When we struggle and it all goes wrong Only you can make it right So I say Oh oh oh oh oh Iâ€TMm learning to be the light whoa, whoa Iâ€TMm learning to be the light whoa, whoa

When a heart is cold as ice You can't melt it with advice No one wants to listen to A list of things they shouldn't do So I build a city on a hill And I light a candle on the sill Knowing you'll be always knocking at the door Oh God I just want to love on everyone All I have is yours to give so let the people come

It's so much brighter living in your world Savor what you did for me You gave me something I want everyone to see When we struggle and it all goes wrong Only you can make it right So I say Oh oh oh oh oh I'm learning to be the light whoa, whoa I'm learning to be the light whoa, whoa I'm learning to be the light that makes the shadows hide the light that breaks the curse of pride the light that takes the weary in itâ€TMs arms

When it all came crashing down There was only darkness all around But in the distance I could see A Flame

Itâ€[™]s So much brighter living in your world Savior what you did for me You gave me something I want everyone, I mean everyone to see When we struggle and it all goes wrong Only you can make it right So I say Oh oh oh oh oh I'm learning to be the light whoa, whoa Iâ€[™]m learning to be the light!! ___ Lyrics submitted by Dori Bramwell.
