Meet In Tha Middle

Timbaland

Hey, hey, we fuss, we fight, your fault, my fault
We was on the same team, 'least that's what I thought
We both participated, only I got caught
Now we hardly conversatin', baby, we don't talk
It was fun at first, you can't say I'm wrong
Now you wanna talk about it? Too late, I'm gone
You're mad at me 'cause I don't wanna play your games
I ain't perfect but I'ma do my thing
We gotta meet in the middle, you here, I'm there
Tell me what's the sense in me tryin' if you don't care?
This relationship is headin' to who knows where
That means one of us got to chose
Because you hurt me and I hurt you
You complain about the things that I don't do
And I don't wanna take the blame, neither do you
Because we got too much to lose
We gotta meet in the middle, meet in the middle
We gotta, gotta meet in the middle
We gotta compromise, baby, don't analyze
We need to see eye to eye
So let's meet in the middle, we gotta meet in the middle
We gotta, gotta meet in the middle
We gotta compromise, we gotta work it out this time
We need to see eye to eye so let's meet in the middle
Hey, hey, we got somethin' we can't enjoy
I'm sick of you tryin' to play with me like I'm your toy
You tried to run game I saw
We gotta a lot of issues, you got yours
We gotta meet in the middle, you can't talk that shit
You can't travel to the future if you walk backwards
Once you walk out the door you can't walk back in
We gotta find a way to solve it, think about our kids
'Cause they in the middle, you wanna sing that song?
You want me to cop a plea and say okay, I'm wrong?
Things are gettin' heavy but I still stay strong
I try to talk it over with you when I could've been gone
Because you hurt me and I hurt you
You complain about the things that I don't do
And I don't wanna take the blame, neither do you

Because we got too much to lose
We gotta meet in the middle, meet in the middle
We gotta, gotta meet in the middle
We gotta compromise, baby, don't analyze
We need to see eye to eye
So let's meet in the middle, we gotta meet in the middle
We gotta, gotta meet in the middle
We gotta compromise, we gotta work it out this time
We need to see eye to eye so let's meet in the middle
I told you once, I told you twice
And now my shoulder's cold like a block of ice
You playin' games like you rollin' dice
Hey, what you know about sacrifice?
Baby, I've been in the middle
I've been givin' you more than a little
Had the ball then you double dribble
I guess love is a riddle
You never listen, I don't ever get my point across
I washed your dirty draws, you out with dirty broads
You did me dirty dawg 'cause you's a dirty dog
It's a curtain call and I ain't mad at all
I gave you more than you deserve, I was worth it all
Bottom line I hope you find what you're searchin' for
You hurt me, said I hurt you
And I complain about the things that you don't do
And I don't wanna take the blame, neither do you
We got too much to lose
We gotta meet in the middle, meet in the middle
We gotta, gotta meet in the middle
We gotta compromise, baby, don't analyze
We need to see eye to eye
So let's meet in the middle, we gotta meet in the middle
We gotta, gotta meet in the middle
We gotta compromise, we gotta work it out this time
We need to see eye to eye so let's meet in the middle
Meet in the middle, gotta, gotta meet in the middle Compromise, analyze, eye to eye, meet in the middle
Meet in the middle, gotta, gotta meet in the middle
Compromise, gotta work it out this time
We need to see eye to eye, meet in the middle
