Beware

Xandria

I dress myself in black
In black from head to heels
I take my promise back
'Cause you don't know how it feelsNo, you don't take me as I am
No, you don't want to know at all
Who is the face behind the mask?
I'll be the one who'll make you fallBeware, beware
I'll be the one
The one to take you under
BewareI hate the light of day
I'm happy when it rains
The stars shine on my way
But the memory remainsNo, you don't take me as I amBeware, beware
I'll be the one
The one to take you under
BewareI am the night's revenge
I've got a soul to sell
And yet a fist to clench
So wait for me in hellBeware, beware
I'll be the one
Wait for me in hell
I'll see you in hell
