Where Only I Could Go

The Muffs

Come on and hate me
If you dare like every mother's son
Good riddance to you
All I say, it had to be doneAnd now I'm out of here
You ask me where, you'll never know
Into a place where only I could goYou'll never see me ever again
I bet you don't care
And I will be much better off
Without you thereAnd if I close my eyes I'll see
It's where you'll never know
Into a place where only I could goI never lie
Only blame, okay?
You'll figure out
You're ashamed any dayAnd now I'm out
