

Don't It Feel Good

Stephanie Bentley

For so long, baby, we've been walkin' on a tight rope
Afraid of fallin' down
I get so tired of this, livin' life in limbo
Maybe it's time to hit the ground
Oh, baby, can't you see, all that really matters
Is that we don't stop at the edge
The only way to be happy ever after
Is when we get out of our heads
Don't it feel good to let yourself go
Don't it feel nice from your head to your toes
Don't it feel good to set yourself free
Don't it feel right when love is the key
Don't it feel good, babe
Yeah... I really love the way you wrap your arms around me
And tell me everything's alright (everything's alright)
It's so much better than I thought it ever could be Baby, words just can't describe
Ooh... caught up in the moment, hypnotized by your kiss
Hey... your love really stalls me
And I can't resist
Don't it feel good to let yourself go
Don't it feel nice from your head to your toes
Don't it feel good to set yourself free
Don't it feel right when love is the key
Don't it feel good, babe
Ah, come on
(don't think so) Don't it feel good to let your heart be free (uh huh)
Don't it feel good when you got the room to breathe (haa...)
Don't it feel nice to take it in and let it out (yeah)
Don't it feel good, that's what it is all about
Ooh... caught up in the moment, hypnotized by your kiss
Hey... your love really stalls me
And I can't resist
Don't it feel good to let yourself go
Don't it feel nice from your head to your toes
Don't it feel good to set yourself free
Don't it feel right when love is the key
Don't it feel good just let yourself go
Don't it feel nice from your head to your toes
Don't it feel good just to set yourself free
Don't it feel right when love is the key, babe
Don't it feel good
