Blue Pony

Julie Miller

There's a picture on the wall
Taken back when I was small
You are standing next to me
I loved you the most of allWe would watch the winters thaw
You would sing and I would draw animals and things for you
In colors that you never sawAnd my Blue Pony's gonna take me for a ride
Down to where we used to go
An I'll see your smile and touch your face
And my heart will overflow
Now the years have washed our times away
Like footprints in the rain
And the house is gone
With the days we shared
But our love will still remain
