

Until The East Coast Ends

Matt Pond PA

When you have decided
The question was too long to listen
Don't give up
Keep it going You could be on my side
You can have my side till morning
We won't stop
On and on and Everything you want to be
I can't wait to see you be
Everything there is for me
I want you to want for me These images I want to see
I want them to be there for me
These images are for you
I wanted you to see them too In the light
Hold them up in the light Misjudging where the edge is Fall onto the floor, your back first
Get on up
Keep it coming When you have decided
The question was too long to listen
Don't give up
Keep it going Everything you want to be
I can't wait to see you be
Everything there is for me
I want you to want for me These images I want to see
I want them to be there for me
These images, they are for you
I wanted you to see them too In the light
Hold them up in the light When I came to
I looked down across the seat at you
You're upside down
Your brown hair hanging all around
I couldn't breathe Beneath the belt, I couldn't hardly move
I couldn't think
I didn't know what to do
If there's any truth it comes from you
