Where We Came From

Phillip Phillips

I must have used up all my wishes yesterday
'Cause the words we said in anger still echo in my brain
Alone through the darkness in this cave
I wanna hear you whisper, hang on every word you say
Climb the mountain, swim for shore
Bring it back to how it was before
Take it out, blow it up
Ignite the memory in between us
Through the storm and all the dust
Take it out of these walls with a cannonball
Don't let it go, don't give up the ghost
While staring at the moon and the sun
Just trying to remember where we came from
I connect the stars to build a map to you
In the empty space we're dreaming
Will we still know the truth
Climb the mountain, swim for shore
Bring it back to how it was before
Take it out, blow it up

Ignite the memory in between us
Through the storm and all the dust
Take it out of these walls with a cannonball
Don't let it go, don't give up the ghost
While staring at the moon and the sun
Just trying to remember where we came from
Ooohhhh ooohhhh Ooohhhh ooohhhh
Ooohhhh ooohhhh Ooohhhh ooohhhh
So climb the mountain, swim for shore
Bring it back to how it was before
Take it out, blow it up
Ignite the memory in between us
Through the storm and all the dust
Take it out of these walls with a cannonball
Don't let it go, don't give up the ghost
While staring at the moon and the sun
Just trying to remember where we came from
Just trying to remember where we came from
Don't let it go, don't give up the ghost

Just trying to remember where we came from
