Believe

Cant

So we decided that it went wrong
It first started when you were gone
I've been thinking just what you mean to me
So I keep trying, I'm dying, to know what I'm supposed to doI've been messed up by things I screwed up
I will give it too much but not enough
Keep on trying so
It's just not coming up
Just tell me how to make it good enoughYou take it, I'll take it, you'll take it
You take it, I'll take it, you'll take itWish I could erase the pain in me
? comes in and says, ?Things I haven't shown you, you won't believe
Things I haven't told you, you won't believe
Things I haven't told you, you won't believe
Things I haven't shown you, you won't (believe) believeBelieve, Believe
Believe, Believe
