Whipped

ilan Bluestone

I'm a man, I'm a man such a loving man
Understand that I'm strong and I know I belong
That's why there's no way you can say what you say
Without feeling that way I got to go awayGot to go away, I ain't playing swaying
I ain't making no waves make no promises
There's no second best, more or less win or lose
I'm looking for the truth, looking for the truth, yeahIt's the real thing
Just what love can bringBe whipped from the outside
Be whipped from the inside
Be whipped from the outside
Whipped from the inside looking for somethingDon't know what I want, oh oh
Don't know what I want, oh oh
Don't know what I want, oh oh
Know what I wantIt's a shame, it's a shame must get out of this shell
Feel life so sweet happiness complete
Is it possible, I can come to terms
So I come to learn just what I believeDrop the act, it's a fact, there's a master plan
There's always a plan 'cause you will and you can
What you know, you don't know so admit and commit
Be a part of my world, be a part of my world, yeahBe a part of my world
See this side of my worldBe whipped from the outside
Be whipped from the inside
Be whipped from the outside
Whipped from the inside looking for somethingDon't know what I want, oh oh
Don't know what I want, oh oh
Don't know what I want, oh oh
Know, know what I wantAnd see what I feel
The future is clear
Baby, do you see what I see
Right now, you know, I know, you know, what is real
Let me tell you what I feelIt's the real thing
Only just what love can bringBe whipped from the outside
Be whipped from the inside
Be whipped from the outside
Whipped from the inside looking for somethingBe whipped from the outside
Be whipped from the inside
Be whipped from the outside
Whipped from the inside looking for somethingDon't know what I want, oh oh
Don't know what I want, oh oh

Don't know what I want, know
Don't know what I wantDon't know what I want, oh oh
Don't know what I want, oh oh
Don't know what I want, oh oh
Tell ya, I just don't know what I wantBe whipped from the outside
Be whipped from the inside
Be whipped from the outside
Whipped from the inside looking for somethingBe whipped from the outside
Be whipped from the inside
Be whipped from the outside
Whipped from the inside looking for something
