

A Minute of Your Time

Will Joseph Cook

I've been sitting waiting, wishing
I could show them all
There's no wait on
This will cost just
A minute of your time sir
Help me now, because I'm falling down
Right in the ground
This could be the drop that needs to set me free
Help me now 'cause I'm getting closer to the edge
Hear the voices screaming out inside my head.
Heavy skies bring heavy weather
I get used to it
Don't bring me back down to reality
'Cause I can't stand the light of day
Help me now, because I'm falling down
Right in the ground
This could be the drop that needs to set me free
Help me now 'cause I'm getting closer to the edge
Hear the voices screaming out inside my head.
I tried to tell myself that I ain't got a problem
Tried to convince myself, there's really nothing else
I tried to tell myself that I ain't got a problem
Everything's changing but I'm brittle to the bone
Help me now, because I'm falling down
Right in the ground
This could be the drop that needs to set me free
Help me now 'cause now I know I never knew
Realise, youthanise the state of mind
OOOOOOO Oh no.
