

The Soul Serene (Live at RAK Studios, London)

Villagers

So I go walking on the shore
And wonder what I am walking for
Rain falling in the stream
As I try to figure
I tried to figure out what it all means
And I find chameleon dreams
In my mind
Took a little ride on the carousel
When will it end I can never tell
Keep spinning until the soul serene
Until I got no reason
I've got no reason to figure out what it means
And I find chameleon dreams in my mind
Step into the soul serene
The soul serene
Step into the soul serene
The soul serene
Step into the soul serene
The soul serene
Where have you been (step into the soul serene)
All my life
So I go walking on the shore
And wonder what I am walking for
