I Like Texas

Pat Green

Well, from Dalhart to Del Rio
And out El Paso way
I've been doin' fine on Houston time
When the sun sets on the Copano BayFrom way up where the Red River flows
On down to the Rio Grande
I was born a little native Texan kid
And I'm proud to say that I amYeah, well, I like Texas, ain't it fine here
I like to pick my guitar down at Ol Gruene Hall
And drink that Miller Lite beer
Yeah, well, I like Texas, man, there ain't no doubt
Just listen to me, 'cause I know what I'm talkin' aboutWell, there's old dancehalls and little cafe's
Where you can get a taste of the Lone Star State
You can strap on boots and have yourself a laugh or two
Well, there,s no line dancing just straight romancing
That Hill Country love is what I fancy
The streams running clear and the skies they are so blueYeah, well, I like Texas, ain't it fine here
I like to pick my guitar down at Ol Gruene Hall
And drink that Miller Lite beer
Yeah, well, I like Texas, man, there ain't no doubt
Just listen to me, 'cause I know what I'm talkin' aboutWell, it's a two day old Burrito
One lukewarm beer to go
On the Sunday side of a roadtrip weekend
Lordy, I was feeling so low
When somebody flipped on the jukebox
And I heard Ol Bob Wills say
