When You Smile

John Wesley Harding

All you have to do is smile
And the words just melt away
And there is nowhere worth going
And I have nothing to sayWhen you smilePlease take off your rings, your watch
We'll forget time as it's flying
I can see myself so deep in your eyes
Can you see yourself in mineWe'll forget just where we are
If we're anywhere at all
You're not the only one who's lonely
I'm not the only one who callsWhen you smile
When you smile at me
When you smile
When you smile at meWhen the shadows pass above
Put the sun on let it shine
And the world revolves you and me
Its center is just where we lieFeels like time will crawl forever
This little room is everywhere
But we were made to be together
And if not it doesn't matterWhen you smile
When you smile at me
When you smile
When you smile at me
