Odd Couple

The Adicts

Ooh ooh, she came from France, wah wah ooh
She taught me how to dance, wah wah ooh
She started with the Tango and then it was the Pogo
Ooh, she wore all black, me in a white suit and bowler hat
We didn't look the same but they all knew our namesOdd couple, that's you and me
Odd couple, we're different, you and meWe watch the fashion trends, we laugh and joke with friends
You never see us pose, this everybody knows
Me and my girl from France, we started to romance
It started with the tango and finished with the PogoOdd couple, that's you and me
Odd couple, we're different, you and me
Odd couple, that's you and me
Odd couple, we're different, you and me
That's you and me
