I'm Wrong

Sharon Van Etten

Coming home in the morning
Drive me to work
Tell me I'm worth all the miles
That you put on your car
I'll tell you I'm fine
Without you for a little while
And then I'll work and sleepTell me I'm wrong
Tell me it hasn't been that longIt's pain, it's pain
It's pain to believe in any song you sing
Tell me this even though you can't believe it
Tell me I'm wrong to make it feel right again
Staying home and learning me the book of your unfinished songs
That I hum along all the time with you
But I don't know words to say
Tell me I'm right
Tell me I'm funny
Even when I'm not
Ear rings and I feel you so (?)It's pain, it's pain
It's pain to believe in any song you sing
Tell me this even though you can't believe it
Tell me I'm wrong
Tell me you'll love me
Tell me this song it's not about you only
