

The Only One

Sons & Lovers

Trace,
Your steps back
To when the world
Would hind on every breathAnd now time
It circles by
Whispered threats
Of unforgotten crimesOhh Ohh Ohh OhhBlame the shadows
Creeping up the walls
For a race on one
And the price it tookOhhI feel it constantly under my skin
The laughing eyes, the joker's grin
But everyone who waste their stare on me
And they won't find heart in the things that I seeOhh Ohh Ohh OhhAnd you're the only one that keeps
The wolves back in the shadows
You're the only one who makes
The fever burn awayAnd I'll never let you face
The same storms I've been facing
And I can be the lighthouse
That guides you right back homeOhh Ohh Ohh Ohh (x2)And you're the only one that keeps
The wolves back in the shadows
You're the only one who makes
The fever burn awayAnd I'll never let you face
The same storms I've been facing
And I can be the lighthouse
That guides you right back home
