

Group Four (Mad Professor Remix)

Massive Attack

A flask I drink of sober tea
While relay cameras monitor me
And the buzz surrounds it does
Buzz surrounds
Buzz surrounds Closed eyed sky wide open
Unlimited girl unlimited sigh
Elsewhere
Indefinitely
Far away
Magnifies and deepens
Ready to sing
My sixth sense peacefully place on my breath
And listening Keys swing from my hand My ears know that my eyes are closed Perish thoughts like contraband
I train myself in martial arts
As advertised
I reinforce my softened parts
As advertised See through me little glazed lane
A world in myself
Ready to sing
My sixth sense peacefully place on my breath Flickering I roam And listening
My ears know that my eyes are closed
Ready to sing
My sixth sense peacefully place on my breath Flickering I roam And listening
My ears know that my eyes are closed I see to bolts
For key to locks
No boat are rocked
I'm free to roam
Among dummy screens
And magazines Closed eyed sky wide open
Unlimited girl unlimited sigh To think that I lay next to you
Wasting time when I could do
A simple job in strip lights
A flask I drink a sober tea
'Till daylight sends me home
Flickering I roam Daydreaming admiring being
Quietly, open the world
I hear the time of the starry sky
Turning over at midnight
Seen through me little glazed lane

A world in myself
Daydreaming admiring being
Quietly, open the world
I hear the time of the starry sky
Turning over at midnight
