Climbing the Walls

Stir

Climbing the walls
Safe until the moment, I close my eyes
I'm climbing the walls
Don't know if I can make it through the nightI'm gonna find my way
Someday maybe I'm going to come down
And I'll start all over again
Can't afford this high that's all around meWe all wanna live forever
And I'm starting it all todayI am climbing the walls
I am climbing the wallsAnd now here I am with a stranger
And I'm faced again with a needle
How am I supposed to relate to you?Help stop me now if you would
'Cause I could fly from here and make it feel good
And I could rule the world but I'm misunderstoodAnd I'll start all over again
I can't afford this high that's all around meWe all wanna live forever
We all wanna be something someday
Ready to taste whatever's yet to come
And I'm starting it all today, today, todayI am climbing the walls
I am climbing the wallsClimbing the walls
Don't know if I can make it through the nightWe all wanna live forever
We all wanna be something someday
Ready to taste whatever's yet to come
And I'm starting it all today, it all today, today, todayI am climbing the walls
Climbing the walls
Climbing the walls
I am climbing the walls
