While I'm Still Here

Nine Inch Nails

only thing i've ever done (ticking time is running out)
closest i've ever come (ticking time is running out)
oh so tired of my own (ticking time is running out)
best days i've ever known (ticking time is running out)
yesterday i found out the world was ending yesterday i found out the world was endinga little more everyday
falls apart and slips away,well i dont mind
im okwish it didn't,have to end this way these four walls are closing in (ticking time is running out) oh all the things that might have been (ticking time is running out) watch young lovers walking by (ticking time is running out)
god forgive me if i cry (ticking time is running out)a little more everday
falls apart
and
slips away
i don't mind
i'm ok
nothing ever
stays the same, well
while we can remember when
always whining
even then
stay with me
hold me near
while i'm still here
