

Circles

Scott Weiland & The Wildabouts

I was thinking 'bout what you said to me last night
Like the way we go in circles
Can't seem to get it right
We seem to go astray
But let's put all that aside
I'd die for you most any day
And surely every night There's no angels
There's no servants to save me
Save me
Ain't no heavens, no masters protect you
I'll care for you
Far away but dream yet side by side
How I wish we could just run away
And leave it all behind
But we got things and a new sunrise Talkin' in circles as the words keep on twistin' round
Surely ain't much fun but I love the way we dance around
In circles, in the kitchen, while we mess around There's no angels
There's no servants to save me
Save me
Ain't no heavens, no masters protect you
I'll care for you Far away but dream yet side by side
How I wish we could just run away
And leave it all behind
But we got things and a new sunrise
Far away but dream yet side by side
How I wish we could just run away
And leave it all behind
But we got things and a new sunrise
