Youth Of Yesterday

The Veer Union

You're always ending up at the bottom
Oh, you're thinking it over, you're thinking it over
The life you've given up left you hollow
Oh, it's too late to start overDon't you know your life's your own mistake?
Don't blame meYou are the youth of yesterday, don't take it out on me
We are the youth of our new day, don't take it out
You stumbled through the land of lost and broken dreams
Can't you see you're bottled up beyond belief?
Don't blame me, don't blame meAnother day has gone, time for healing
Oh, you're thinking it over, you're thinking it over
You live the past away now it's revealing
Oh, it's too late to start overDon't you know your life's your own mistake?
Don't blame meYou are the youth of yesterday, don't take it out on me
We are the youth of our new day, don't take it out
You stumbled through the land of lost and broken dreams
Can't you see you're bottled up beyond belief?
Don't blame me, don't blame meYou are the youth of yesterday, sorry
I feel sorry for you, sorry for you
'Cause this is the life you've wasted
And you are the one to blame for it
Don't take it out on me 'cause you are the one to blame for itYou are the youth of yesterday, don't take it out on me
We are the youth of our new day, don't take it out
You stumbled through the land of lost and broken dreams
Can't you see you're bottled up beyond belief?
Don't blame me, don't blame me
