

So Many Ways

Ellie Campbell

So many ways
To say how I love you (how I love you)
How I need you baby
Oh yeah!
Ooh ooh
Ooh yeah ooh yeah yeah yeah I could compare ya to the sun in the sky
But that will never do
Or to a dream that in the morning light
Still comes true
No matter how hard
I'm willing to try
Can't find the right words to say how I feel inside So many ways
To say how I love you
How I need you baby baby
I count the days
Until you believe me
That's all I can do
Until then,
Gonna tell you boy,
In so many ways No one could ever love you more than I do
Boy this is for real
Somehow I've gotta get the message to you
And I won't rest until
I find the right words to convince you this time
And when I find them, I'm gonna speak my mind So many ways
To say how I love you
How I need you baby baby
I count the days
Until you believe me
That's all I can do
Until then,
I'm gonna tell you boy,
In so many ways You are the river that runs to my sea
Without your lovin this heart would not be So many ways to say how I love you
How I need you baby...
I count the days
Until you believe me (believe me)
That's all I can do (all I can do)
So many ways (there's so many manys)

To say how I love you (to say how I love you, to say how I need you)
I count the days (count the days, oh yeah)
Until you believe me (till you believe me)
That's all I can do (all I can do)
(I'm gonna love you, I'm gonna love you baby)
