

Daisy (Re-mastered 2013 Version)

The Maine

I picked you up and lifted your wilted frame into the sun.
I was taken back, yeah i was taken back, and by the time i caught my breath, you had blossomed into something that i did not expect.and if it takes all night, I swear i'll wait,
for you,
forever.sunlight, sunshine,
all for you my daisy.
we're getting this before you leave, all for you my daisy.you're a wreck and you know, you've got me wrapped around your finger, like a boy tangled in vines, but I've figured you out.and now we're here, we're so confused,
and i wish that there was some way that i could tell you.and if it takes all night, I swear I'll wait,
for you,
forever.sunlight, sunshine,
all for you my daisy.
we're getting this before you leave,
all for you my daisy.[x3]
all for, all for, all for you my daisysunlight, sunshine,
all for you my daisy.
we're getting this before you leave,
all for you my daisy
