Crime

The Clean Prophets

Waterfront,
Sunshine,
A little weed,
A little red wine,
Then come,
The 5-0,
Citation,
It's illegal.We just wanna party
We don't mean no harm
Don't wanna hurt nobody
But they make it so hard
We just wanna party
Just wanna rock all night
Don't wanna hurt nobody
No need to be uptightIt's a crime,
It's a crime.Backyard,
Tunes right,
Girls dancin,
In the moonlight,
Then come
The one time,
Regulation,
Gotta pay the fine.We just wanna party
We don't mean no harm
Don't wanna hurt nobody
But they make it so hard
We just wanna party
Just wanna rock all night
Don't wanna hurt nobody
No need to be uptightIt's a crime,
It's a crime.[Kendrick Lamar]
Pour up another shot of Hennessy, my tendency to start the party with Probably hit that Bob Marley, I aint with that Molly shit
Represent my na, bang your hood
Bloods and Crips in the same building, its all good
Im looking at this pretty fine thing rolling with her friend
Hoping I can make her mind change, jump inside my Benz
Let me get it crackin
Conversation turn to plenty sexual frustration

Fuck-faces lookin at her, hard not to be impatient
O really though
You Drink?
You Smoke?
Get a case
Get a 1/8
Fly high, not coach
G5, sit back
Ill drive, let me know
On the couch
On the bed
On the floor
Say go
Say when
In the wind, we go
We toast, to the game
No games
We both, really grown
Im sayin, you playin
I mean, I dance
To my own beat, to the beat now flip your hands and..
Let the smoke burn
Lets the smoke burn in your vein
When its your turn hit it twice then say my name
Say my name, say my name
Mind game like Candyman
Dark chocolate, vanilla
I tell you this is Candy Land
This is candid camera, theres no pauses allowed
They dont understand us because we wont turn it down
Middle fingers in the air
This is truth and double dare
300 drunk muthafuckas in the holding cell.
