

Back to Where I Was

Eric Hutchinson

New life decides to come through the front door
And makes us wish we'd shown respect before
    Though I don't have much of a choice
I resolve to regain my voiceIf I only just begin to understand it that's because
    Every time I start to change my mind again
        It gets me back to where I was
    Gets me back to where I wasNew life decides we never had a clue
        The two of us decidin' what to do
        Though my hands are all but tied
I rebound so I can say at least I triedAnd oh, If I only just begin to understand it that's because
    Every time I time I start to change my mind again
    It gets me back to where I wasAnd long as I'm allowed
        I'll change my mind, that's what it's for
        I'm getting' older but I'm still the same
I'm just thinkin' anymoreIf I only just begin to understand it that's because
    Every time I start to change my mind again
        It gets me back to where I was
        Gets me back to where I was
    And oh, gets me back to where I was
