Spark

Ash Koley

With so much to say
And so far apart
I'm waiting for you
Through too many days
I've dreamt a lot
That you're waiting for me
Tonight give me a sign
If you're losing heart
If you're letting go
Or am I the only one trying
If there was someway
Somehow to know
If you could just send me a spark
So I know you'll think of me too
If you could just send me a spark
Just a small part of you
A small part will doNights, are they the same?
Or do you just lie awake
Wondering what I'm doing
Sometimes, when I'm not okay
Still know what I'd rather miss than you
Tonight give me a sign
If you're losing heart
Please don't let go
Or am I the only one trying
If there was someway
Somehow to know
If you could just me a spark
So I know you'll think of me too
If you could just send me a spark
Just a small a part of you
A small part will doPut all I meant in a bottle and send it across the sea
Open it up and I'll hope that it's not just another dreamIf you could just send me a spark
So I know you'll think of me too
If you could just send me a spark
Just a small a part of you(Send me a spark) Send me a spark
(Send me a spark) Just a small part will do
A small part will do
