Too Little, Too Late

The Stereo

this is my last chance is this really what we want? now that you have gone away you are far away from me thanks alot
i've waited so long wanna get things straight but now it's all too little too late i won't sit, i can't resist i don't mean to drag this out one last kiss, one left to miss i have failed to drown you out
