

Perfect Holiday

Mikey Wax

Fields of white, skies of blue the fire is bright in the living room and i feel, baby, all we are is todaythe morning news, as the coffee brews the record spins those happy tunes but all i feel, baby, all we are is todayso let those records play lay with me, let the snow just melt away cause right here makes a perfect holidaysleigh bells ring go and let em sing neighbors pass by with gifts to bring but all i need, babe, all is i want is here todayso lets those records play lay with me, let the snow just melt away cause right here makes a perfect holidayoh and some folks like a holiday on the beaches of LA oh but i don't know whats better than just laying here together in our sweaters watching snow melt awaylets those records play
yeahlets those records play
