

As You Slept

Mike Perkins

I'd lie on a blanket with you in the rain
And let the water wash it all away
I'd kiss the raindrop hanging from the tip of your nose.
Let's roll in the mud,
and ruin all our clothes

And if sometimes I go and you're alone,
Well I promise,
I'll always come back home.
And I'll return to you with a bouquet
A flower for every day I was away.

(Chorus)

Thank you, my true
'cause I don't know where I'd be without the sound of you whisperin' to me,
so softly.

As you slept I knelt and kissed your cheek.
A smile from
beneath your dreams did peek.
Your soul was wide awake to meet my care.
Your sleeping body
was unaware.

(Chorus)

If you stayed asleep all day long,
I'd stare at you and keep adding to this song.
'Cause I will never run out of ways to say,
"I love you"
and it's always gonna be that way.
Yes I love you,
and it's always gonna be that way.
