

Papi (feat. Nicole Scherzinger)

Todrick Hall

(Nicole Scherzinger)

Travis is it?

You have a really big-big personality So glad you came to visit

Your talent is exquisite

Is it just me?

Or is it getting hot in here

The AC might be broken

Let's crack a window open

Then hold me close

So you can whisper in my ear Tell me all your dreams and fantasies

Pardon me, I have a tendency to talk a lot

Lay it all on me

Your little sexy piece of chocolate But I don't know

If I'm your body type

But just close your eyes enjoy the ride

Won't you sway my waist from side to side

Make me say I Papi, I Papi, I

Know that it would be ashamed

If you blow the chance to taste the fame

You want oh my boss to know your name (?)

Make me say I Papi, I Papi, I Wait- don't- wait don't go A little hunk a middle (?)

Just meet me in the middle

Don't be afraid our little secrets safe in here

You go potential Trevor (Todrick)

It's Todrick (Nicole)

Whatever

Destiny is calling

And your future is so clear I can almost see your name in lights

What a sight

My mind is spinning like a carousel

Trevor all I need

Is a little taste of caramel Well I don't know

If I'm your body type

But just close your eyes enjoy the ride

Won't you sway my waist from side to side

Make me say I Papi, I Papi, I

Know that it would be ashamed

If you blow the chance to taste the fame

You want oh my boss to know your name (?)

Make me say I Papi, I Papi, I(Todrick)
I find myself in the strangest predicament
Her intensions could be innocent
But I don't know if I should go through with this
If I do I risk saying yes but what if it's a test?
That's a mess
You can rest assured the fate of my success
Would less
But the question is if I tell her no
Would I blow my big break?
Would it be a mistake?
For god sakesShe's gotta know
She's not my body type
And I know what's wrong just can't be right
On the one thing you got one life
You should cut yourself some slack
You know just once she's got the chocolate
Then she's never going back
Is she talking a big talker
Or is this how you play the game?
She says I got star potential she can't even say my name
How many one hit wonders sitting
Wonder why we never knew of them
You've never touched a boob in your whole life
And she's got two of them
This road is full of choices tough decisions rough mistakes
Take the handle or the easy street your choice is yours to make
But I don't know(Nicole)
If I'm your body type(Todrick)
I'm so close(Nicole)
To all those camera lights (?)
Would you stay and lay with me tonight
Make me say I Papi, I Papi, I
Know that it would be ashame
If you blow the chance to taste the fame
You want oh my boss to know your name (?)
Make me say I Papi, I Papi, I
I don't know
If I'm your body type
But just close your eyes enjoy the ride
Won't you sway my waist from side to side
Make me say I Papi, I Papi, I
Know that it would be ashame
If you blow the chance to taste the fame
You want oh my boss to know your name (?)

Make me say I Papi, I Papi, I
