Hurt Me

Deborah Allen

Hurt me
Why in the world did you hurt me?
And just when I thought
I'd found someone to trust
You took away your love andHurt me
I still can't believe you hurt me
And just when I thought it was safe to come in
You let me want you and need you and thenYou left me, like a child in the rain
Now, I'm mending myself in the pain
Oh, you hurt meYes, you left me
Like a child in the rain
Now, I'm lost in an ocean of pain
