Duets For One

Elton John

Look at you, could I have been so foolish and so green?
A face that smiled at every passing scene
Look at you, you're lost behind the web of woven time
When each emotion pinball in your mindLook at me, I'm happy now I see your face and smile
I was the judge and jury at your trial
Look at me, you know the road ahead will twist and turn
Now I have the time to stand and learnBut you and I have come so far with a shaken faith
From the pain of a broken heart, toward feeling great
Feel like life has just begun
No more singing duets for oneI hold your picture here beside the bed
You had a party raging in your head
Look at me, I look at you with vacancy and hurt
And here today all I can do is learnLook at me, I'm happy now I see your face and smile
I was the judge and jury at your trial
Look at me, you know the road ahead will twist and turn
Now I have the time to stand and learnBut you and I have come so far with a shaken faith
From the pain of a broken heart, toward feeling great
Feel like life has just begun
No more singing duets for oneI have this picture of me
Looking at you looking at me
And I would like to say
Goodbye sweet memoryOh, you and I have come so far with a shaken faith
From the pain of a broken heart, toward feeling great
Feel like life has just begun
No more singing duets for oneNo more singing duets for one
No more singing duets for one
