One Hero

Ten Foot Pole

prison walls
outside your cell a bloody tyrant falls no shots were fired
he said you were weak
you turned every
cheek and turned the brute away [Chorus]
one hero
one vision
your word
my religion
no regrets
not hollow
you go and i follow
fear of death
no worry poisoned you
your every breath
love for the moment
no gun can undo the power of truth the voice alive
today
[Chorus]
my rock. my guide
your book right by my side your voice,your tone
ill never be alone
