

You'll Always Be My Girl

Drew Holcomb & The Neighbors

From the start of spring to the autumn leaves
And the summers and winters between When the river is wide the same one is dry
And the wind blows hard through the trees Even if we're dead broke with no place to go even when the shadows are strong You'll always be, you'll always be You'll always be my girl When the harvest is plenty and it feels like it should When the fruit is ripe on the vine
Then the rain flows and the flood comes
And it feels like the end of the line
Even if we are lost and we're counting the cost We will hold on to each other You'll always be, you'll always be You'll always be my girl You'll always be, you'll always be You'll always be my girl
