Save You

Pearl Jam

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Gonna save you fucker
Not gonna lose you
I'm feeling cocky and strong
Can't let you go
Too important to me and too important to us
We'd be lost without you
Baby, let yourself fall
I'm right below you nowAnd fuck me if I say something you don't wanna hear from me
And fuck me if you only hear what you wanna hear from/fuck me if I care, but I'm not leaving hereYou helped me when I was down
I'll help when you're down
Why are you hitting yourself--c'mon, hit me instead
Let's pick up your will; it's grown fat and lazy
I'm sympathetic as well
Don't go on me now And I'm not living this life without you; I'm selfish and clear
And you're not leaving here without me: I don't wanna be without my best friend
Wake up to see you could have it all . . . all'Cause there is but you, and something within you
It's taken control
Let's beat it, get up let's go
Oh you're in your own world; let's see the whole world
Let's pick up your soulFuck me if I say something you don't wanna hear from me . . . fuck me
Fuck me if you only hear the treble in your head
Please help me to help you help yourself . . . you
Mmm . . . Help yourself help me
Please want me to; please let me to help you
