

Man On The Corner

Virgin Prunes

where are you go down
Down the? side to the? sea
There was a strange man on the corner
I said man are you drunk
Are you a performer?
He said I will walk
I remember under where the bombs fall
I will
I said goodbye man
If it's the price of drink you want
I'll buy you one but I don't wanna hear this bullshit out of you
I think I've blown this
