Summer Rain

Carl Thomas

Storming outside, rain
She keeps me home
Quiet conversation
Makes me warm, soSummer rain, sweet rain
Whispers me to sleep and wakes me up again, my rain
Sometimes, I swear, I hear her call my name
You wash away the pain
My summer rainIn the middle of the night when I'm alone
I feel her kisses on me
Even when she's gone
Can't wait 'till she gets homeSummer rain
Whispers me to sleep and wakes me up again
Sometimes, I swear, I hear her call my name
To wash away the pain
My summer rainI don't mind if it rains forever
Rain, rain, let it rain
I said, I don't mind if it rains forever
Rain, rain, let it rainSo go ahead and make it rain
You bring the sunshine back again
So go ahead and make it rain
Your tender touches wash away my rainSummer rain
Whispers me to sleep and wakes me up again
Sometimes, I swear, I hear her call my name
To wash away the pain
My summer rainSummer rain
(So, baby, won't you be my summer rain?)
Whispers me to sleep and wakes me up again
(So, baby, won't you be my summer rain?)
Sometimes, I swear, I hear her call my name
(So, baby, won't you be my summer rain?)
To wash away the pain
My summer rain
(So, baby, won't you be my? Would you be my summer rain?)So go ahead and make it rain
You bring the sunshine back again
So go ahead and make it rain
(Baby, would you rain on me?)
Your tender touches wash away my painSo go ahead and make it rain
You bring the sunshine back again
(I need you to make it rain, would you do it for me one time?)

So go ahead and make it rain
Your tender touches wash away my pain
