

Grow Up

Balue

sitting in my bedroom staring at the screen dreaming bout how it's gonna turn out playing make believe heading for the basement of my fragile mind reaching to turn the lights out tryna make up for lost time still don't wanna grow up that's never gonna change x2 get up in the morning try to face the day get my ass to work early do it cause I want pay and I don't really know why I work the nine to five I guess it's cause I love you want to give you a nice life
we got nothing but time, because time does not exist x5
